Valedictorian

Jacqueline Reed

Jacqueline Lee Reed is the 1995-1996 Valedictorian for the graduating class of 1996.

Jackie has maintained a 4.1609 grade point average on a scale of 4.334 for her four years as a student at Marysville High School.

Jackie is considered to be an extremely intelligent and talented young lady whose academic achievements have gained her the top ranking in her class.

She has participated in marching band, jazz band, National Honor Society, the school musical, and the East Shore Concert Band.

Jackie will be majoring in journalism at St. Clair County Community College for the next two years. She is undecided as to what university she will attend later.

Jacqueline is the daughter of Ms. Gerilyn Reed and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas and Diane Reed.

Saluatorian

Reada Glitman

The Salutatorian of the graduating class of 1996 for the 1995-1996 school year is Reada Winifred Glitman.

Reada achieved this honor by maintaining a 4.1034 grade point average on a 4.334 scale during her years at Marysville High School.

She devoted much time and effort to her academic pursuits as well as all of her extra curricular activities.

Reada participated in National Honor Society as president, student council, steering committees, STAND as secretary, Octagon Club as president, Quiz Bowl, captain of the varsity basketball team, varsity softball, and JV volleyball.

Reada will be attending Michigan State University and is enrolled in the Lyman Briggs. She plans to become a pediatrician.

Reada is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph and Geraldine Glitman.

D.A.R. Kim Smith

Kim Smith is the recipient of the D.A.R. Award in honor of her academic achievement and citizenship.

Kim is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael and Cindy Smith.

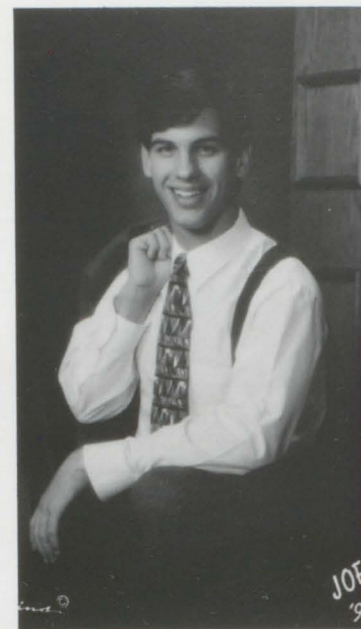

American Legion

Joel Wesch

Joel Wesch is the recipient of the American Legion Award for his outstanding citizenship and academic achievement.

Joel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John and Cathy Wesch.

Viking Yearbook Service Award American Legion Award Bausch-&-Lomb

Reada Glitman was not only the Salutatorian of the Class of 1996, she was also the recipient of three significant senior awards: The Viking Yearbook Service Award, the American Legion Award, and the Bausch-&-Lomb Award.

Reada's Viking Yearbook Service Award was presented to her for four years of outstanding work on the yearbook. This year she was the editor.

She was the recipient of the American Legion Award for her outstanding academic and citizenship achievements.

Reada was presented the Bausch-&-Lomb science award for her excellence in that area of study.

Her yearbook teacher, Mr. David Schmorow, commented, "Reada is an exceptional person and student. Her academic achievements are high, and her abilities, responsibilities, and service are just as outstanding."

Reada is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph and Geraldine Glitman.

Seniors Take 1st!

The senior class of 1996 built their float at the home of Shane Grant.

The theme this year was movies. The senior class chose the Stay Puff marshmallow man from the movie "Ghostbusters" for their float.

After many years of frustration, the seniors finally got first place. The float was the largest in the parade.

The class agreed that float building the past few years has paid off. It was a lot of fun and many seniors participated.

Chief Advisor

Mr. Bill Goetz has been the senior class advisor for the past four years. His commitment was readily noted by the seniors.

He has helped with many fundraisers, concession stand management, and float building.

The seniors thank him.

Class Officers

The officers of the class of 1996 strongly agree that their senior year was the best.

Joel Wesch and Kim Adams worked together serving as president and vice president. Jessica Stephens was the secretary and Noelle Anderson took care of the senior accounts as treasurer.

Together, the four officers worked hard to organize meetings and lead their fellow classmates.

Many hours of preparation were spent on float building, fundraisers, and the senior prom.

Senioritis?

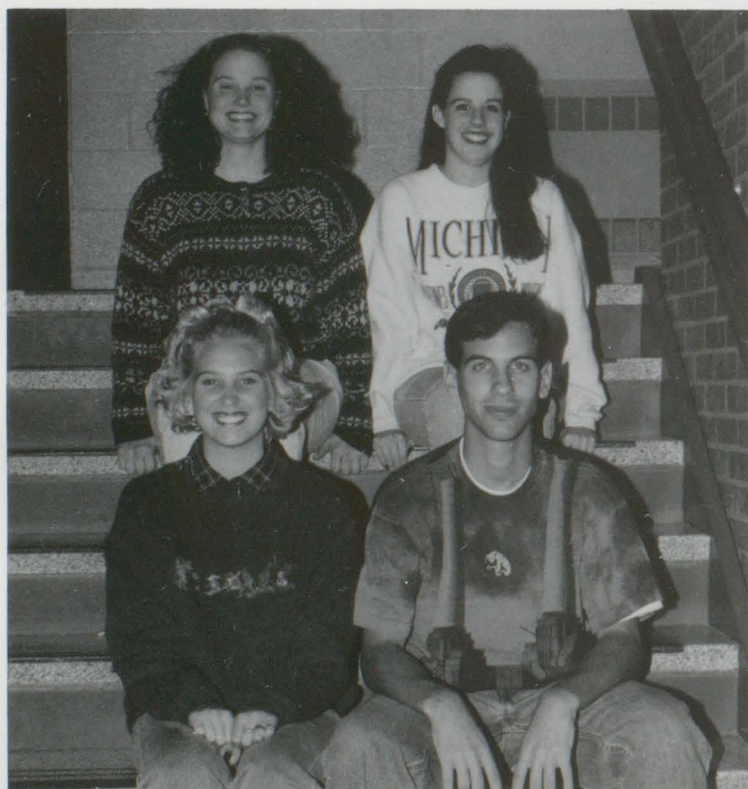

Nichole Fasbender: "... it is when seniors can't wait to get out of school, so they start slacking off in classes."

Lori Richards: "I think it is when seniors think they run the school and have no worries except how to pay for college or a new car."

Brian Stager: "I think senioritis is just not caring about doing any school work, because we won't be here to turn it in."

Dave Hunt: "Like a cold."

"Impossible"

by: Buffalo Tom

One thing for sure.
It's not the same any more,
close the door.
There's a wind coming in,
and if you're sure,
say no more,
it's impossible.
It's impossible.

In and out,
I'm runnin' out of time.
Friends of mine,
I feel like I'm getting old,
and if it's true
there are some things that I must do,
me and you, me and you.

And if it's true,
I will believe you.
Believe you,
that's what I will do.
And if you're sure,
say no more,
it's impossible.
It's impossible.

A Year To Remember

Mrs. Lucienne Kiefer's 4th hour Honors English class gathers at the back of the room.

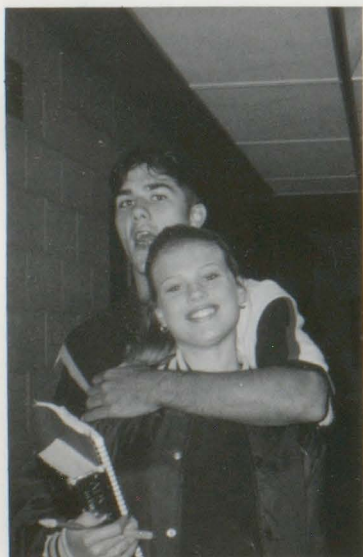

A group of seniors hang out in the school store between the two lunch hours.

Spencer Han, Joel Wesch, Shane Hollingshead and Mike Sanders clown around on their way to class.

A group of seniors hang out at the bottom of the stairs before their afternoon classes.

Rich DeShon gives Kim Lipke a quick hug before beginning their assignment for the day.

Lori Richards attempts to "fly" down the stairs on her way to her 3rd hour class.

Kim Smith proudly sings the National Anthem before the 1995 Homecoming game.

"Wrapping It All Up"

A group of seniors have fun rollerblading in the high school parking lot.

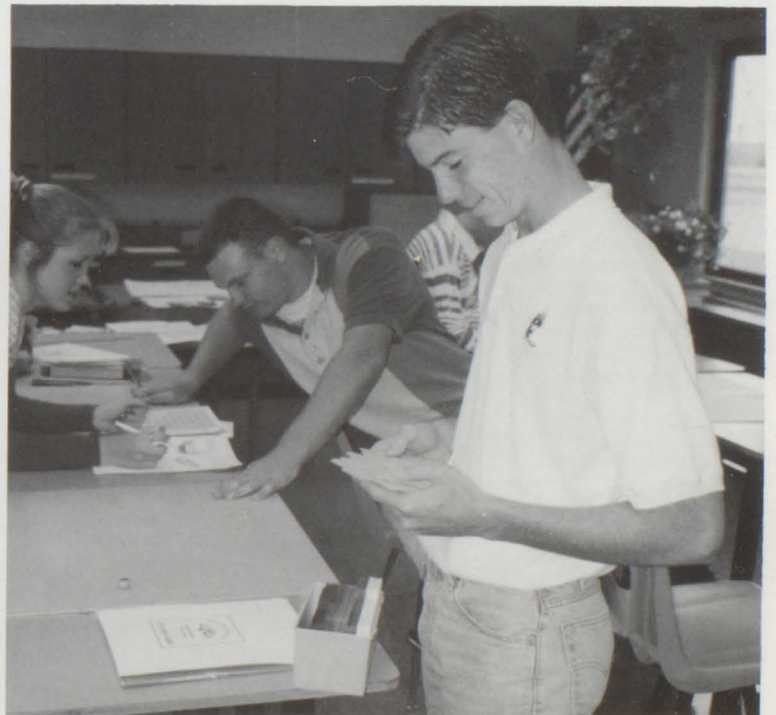

Amy McMenemy and Noel Thomas take a second on their way to their next class to say "peace."

Tami Moore and Kristine Pelliccia play their piccolos proudly at a pep assembly.

Suzy Pavlov assists Josh Corbat with the roladex in the Student Services Office.

Scott Baldwin organizes his materials needed for his assignment in art class.

This is a wild, free-flowing comedy that's easy to stage. M*A*S*H stands for Mobile Army Surgical Hospital and joining it are two unpredictable madcaps, Hawkeye and Duke. They can't be dealt with casually, however, because they are also two of the best chest surgeons in South Korea. They decide to wage a campaign to get a young Korean to the United States and entered in a good school. The thread of this effort helps tie together the pile-up of comic adventures that pyramid right before the eyes of your astonished and hysterical audience! Hawkeye has a scene with a woman psychiatrist who believes he's been trying to lobster-trap mermaids in a rice paddy! There's a jolly encounter with the baby-talking Bonwit sister, the worst tap-dancing act the U.S.O. ever sent overseas. A sergeant is selling dumb G.I.'s fishing rights in the Bay of Phum. Radar O'Reilly, a soldier with incredible hearing, anticipates things before they happen. The proprietor of a painless dental clinic is cured of dark moods by the recreation of an old monster movie—and a monster! It's all here, including a little romance mixed in with dramatic moments and a genuine love of life. Oh, yes—the Korean boy does get his education in the United States!

Scott Simpson and Jason Michels perform as Hawkeye and Lt. Col. Henry Blake.

Melissa Thompson, Kristine Pelliccia, Helta Patel and Anita Wisniewski have a meeting.

Laura Lindke and Miguel Blanco have a good time dancing during a party scene.

Audrey Mast enjoys performing her role as Major Margaret "Hop Lips" Houlian.

The stage crew gathers on the center stage after a one of the great performances.

Juniors Second!

This year's Homecoming featured themes from movies. The junior class chose "Star Wars" as their movie.

The character on top of their float was R2D2. Their slogan was, "Hey, Fenton, don't you wish the force was with you?"

Their float came in second, a step up from last year.

The float was built at Ryan O'Boyle's house. A large number of Juniors were involved this year.

Princess Sarah

Sarah Maxwell was elected this year as the Homecoming Princess representing the junior class.

Sarah is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Craig and Sally Maxwell.

Sarah is the president of the junior class and vice president of student council.

She is active in Chaunteuse and the school choir.

Her future plans are attending a Christian college and pursuing a career in early childhood education.

Her reaction to being selected to court was, "It's a dream come true for me! I'm very excited!"

Prince Chris

Chris Hart represented the class of 1997 on this year's Homecoming court. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph and Mila Hart.

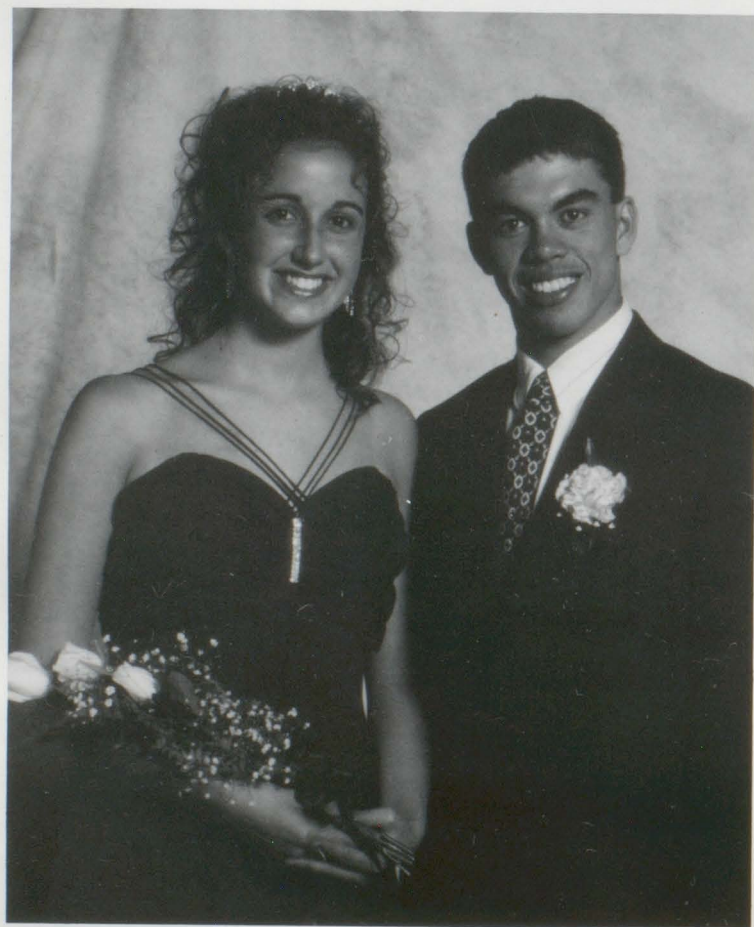

Chris's hobbies include playing sports. He is on the Viking Football team.

His favorite class is any that deals with science.

Chris's future plans are to graduate from high school and attend college.

His reaction to being selected for the homecoming court was, "I was very surprised and honored to be chosen!"

Juniors Sparkle and Shine

Kyle Marthen and D.J. Goddard get outfitted to chase a bat that is loose in D.J.'s house.

Heather Kearns, Sara Schmitt and Katie Woods sit together in the auditorium.

Steve Smarch, John Hurley and Kevin Richards enjoy a Big Gulp in the parking lot.

A group of juniors take a rest after trying to shoot a 300 while bowling at Viking Lanes.

Deena Witukiewicz is hard at work in the cafeteria taking advantage of a little spare time.

Lindsay Hadden and Stacey Currier work together on a computer in the new learning center.

"One More Year To Go"

Missy Day heads for the ice cream machine for a treat during lunch hour.

John Hurley gets into the Christmas spirit decorating the Christmas tree.

Jayne Tarzwell reads a book in the library while working as a teacher aide.

André Gignac and Bill Saunders layout a print during their drafting class.

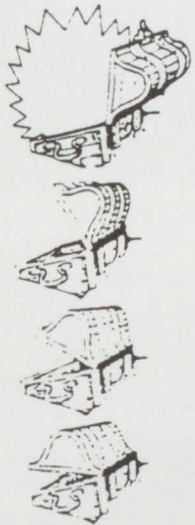

Bridget Schantz staples the calendar up as part of her duties as teacher aide for Miss Colleen Coe.

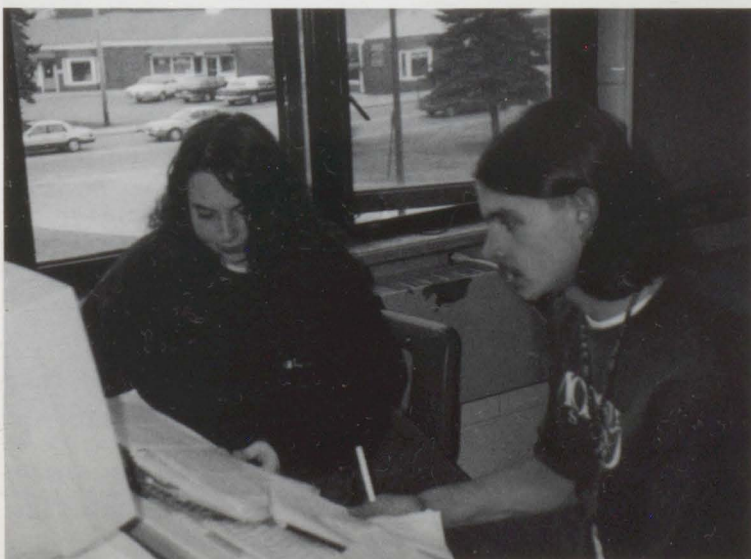

Heather Martin and Stacey Currier work on a marketing project during lunch.

Michelle Heming lifts weights as part of her assignment in Miss Lynne O'Dell's slimnastics class.

Kaci Klieman and Mandy Jones proof-read an English assignment for class.

Heather Schwark and Derek Cisco work on a project for the Learning With Technology class.

Ricky Potts lays out a plan as a class assignment in his drafting class.

"Captured In A Dream"

Tom Kaski and Renee Eagen pause for a minute before getting their prom pictures taken by Perkins.

Sara Barbe, Stacey Currier, and Carrie Bugg take a short break from dancing at the Junior Prom.

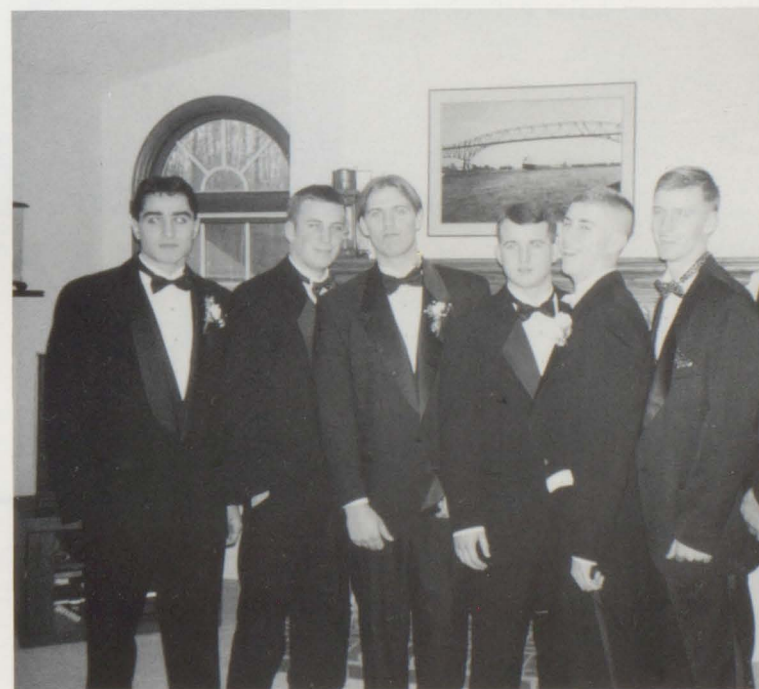

"Captured In A Dream" was the Junior Prom theme chosen by this year's junior class.

The prom was held on Friday, January 19. After many months of preparation, the gym was transformed into a palace in colors of royal blue, silver, purple, and white.

With the balloon-shaped heart-ring hovering over the center of the room, the streamers draped across the ceiling, the dance floor encased in white lights, and the castle centerpieces decorating each table, the gym looked spectacular.

The evening concluded with the prom theme song, "Hold On To the Night" by Richard Marx.

Fourth Again

The sophomore class chose "King Kong" for the theme of their float. Their slogan was "The Vikings will tower over Fenton."

The float placed fourth again. The sophomores placed the Empire State Building in the center of the float with King Kong climbing it. They also had an airplane circling the building.

Float building took place at Kurt Slota's house. They had a good number helping.

Princess

Prince
Dave Frendt

Princess Vivian

This year's sophomore class elected Vivian Pozios to represent their class. Vivian is the daughter of Ted and Koula Pozios who escorted her at half-time.

Vivian said, "I was very surprised and honored that I was chosen to represent my class."

It was a fun filled experience that I will never forget."

Some of Vivian's hobbies include bike riding, listening to music and spending time with family and friends.

Her future plans are to attend a university but her major is undecided.

Prince Dave

Dave Frendt was elected class prince by his sophomore class.

Dave's evening escorts were his mother Sue Anderson and father Jerry Frendt.

Prince Dave said, "It was a busy day. It was more fun than I thought it would be and wasn't as embarrassing as I expected. Homecoming was something I will remember for the rest of my life."

Some of Dave's hobbies are playing sports and he loves to eat candy.

He plans to attend college to become a teacher. Also, Dave would like to coach football.

Frosh Float

This year's Homecoming theme was movies. The freshmen class chose "Grease" as their selection. They had as their slogan, "Grease The Tigers." Their float took third place.

The freshmen did very well for their first time. They worked very hard and had a lot of fun. The float was built at Jim Davis' house.

Princess
Julie Pavlov

Prince
Dan Martinez

Prince Dan

The freshmen class chose Dan Martinez for their class representative. He was escorted by his parents Roel and Laura Martinez.

Dan enjoys playing all sports. Dan's favorite class is mathematics.

After graduation Dan plans on attending college.

Dan's reaction was, "I was very honored and surprised that my class chose me to represent them."

Princess Julie

Julie Pavlov was chosen Freshman Princess by her fellow classmates. Julie's evening escorts were her parents Joseph and Marilyn Pavlov.

Princess Julie enjoys playing volleyball, softball, and running. She also likes traveling and camping.

After graduation Julie plans on attending SCCC and then transferring to Central Michigan University to study physical therapy.

Julie said, "It was a great experience and I will treasure it."

Freshmen Come Alive!

Shaleene Glombowski and Rae Hills participate in Mr. John Knuth's 7th hour gym class.

The Thornton triplets, Jennifer, Julie and Jeanette work on the freshmen float.

Rachel Huysentruyt is busy typing her assignment in her 7th hour typing class.

Melissa Bugg is having fun in her gym class while participating in an outside activity.

Some of the freshmen class clap along with the fight song at one of the pep assemblies.

A group of freshmen relax outside during lunch for the first week of school.

Patrick Germain and Marcie Miskus do the three legged race in the pep assembly before the Marine City game.

Chad Rann attempts to do his work in his Earth Science class with his compass and ruler.

Jon Lindke carefully checks over his assignment for the day in his Biology class.

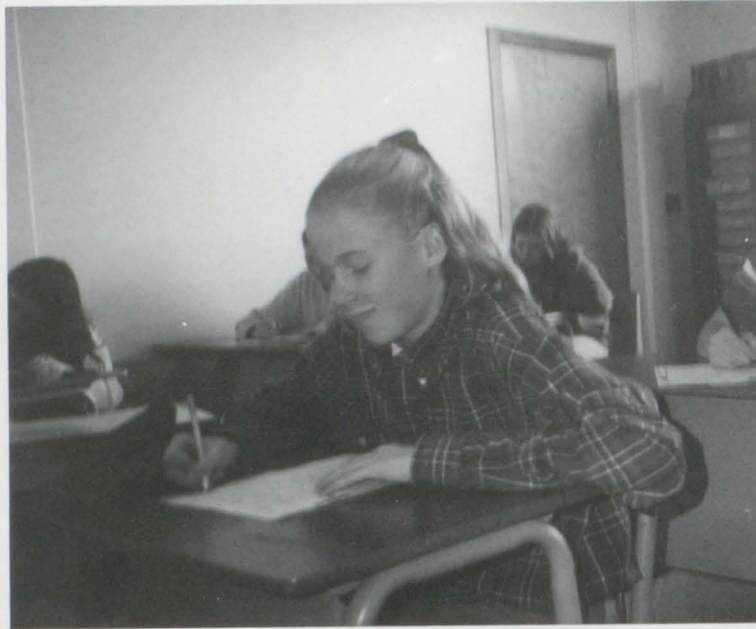

Rae Hill has fun during her gym class while working out in the weight room.

Freshmen Work Hard

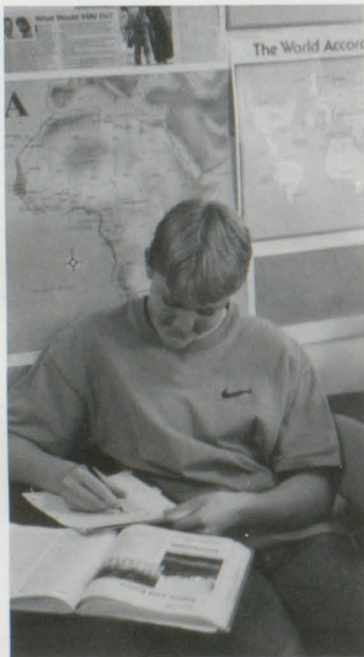

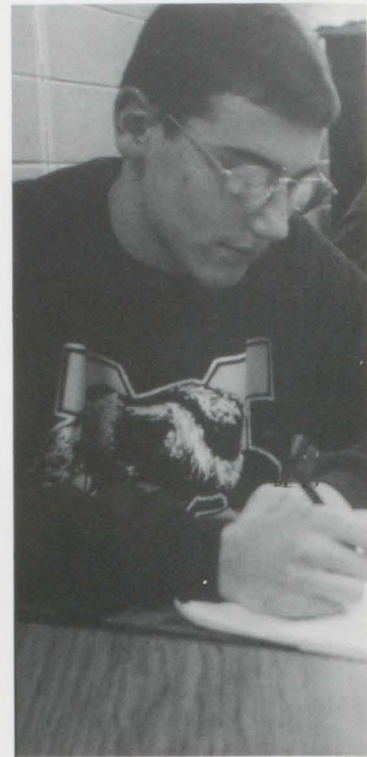

Freshman Nichole Landschoot works on her materials in Mr. Ray Skrzyziarz's geography class.

Jamie Grace is all concentration as he works hard on his geography project.

"Yearbook Editors"

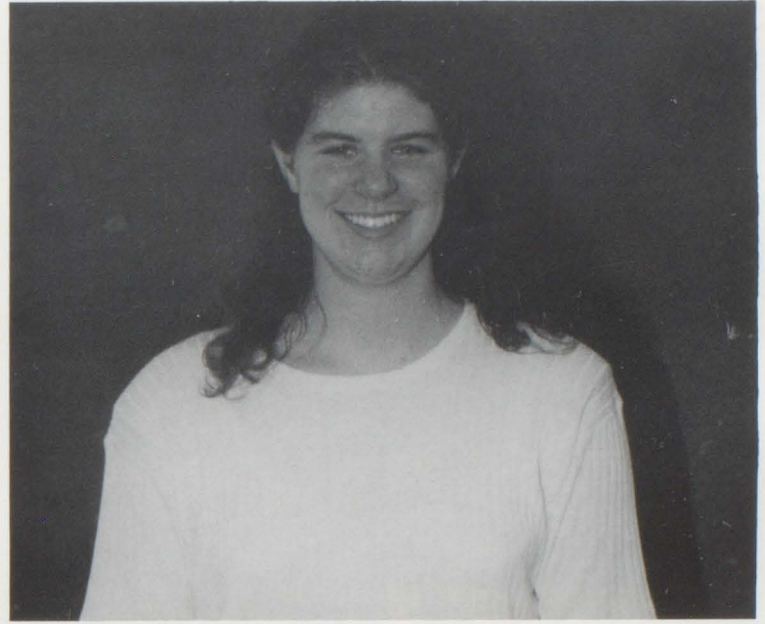

Charisse Moncher has been a member of the Marysville High School Yearbook staff for four years.

Charisse plans to attend St. Clair County Community College for a year and then transfer to Western Michigan University to major in Psychology or elementary education.

Charisse was quoted as saying, "Yearbook has been a lot of fun, a great experience and a lot of hard work."

Charisse is proud to admit following in the footsteps of her sisters, Moniquea and Heather as editor of the Marysville High School Yearbook.

Mr. Schmorow said, "Charisse is a four year veteran. That is rare. She has learned all aspects of the yearbook in that time. Her leadership was invaluable this year."

Reada Glitman has been a member of the Marysville Yearbook staff for three years. Reada was also a member of the yearbook staff at her former high school.

Reada's future plans include attending Michigan State University and then going on to medical school.

Reada was quoted as saying, "Yearbook has been an extremely beneficial experience. Working with many different people towards a common goal is always an adventure. I will never forget the good friends I have made and the good times we have shared."

Mr. Schmorow said, "Reada's knowledge of page layout was exceptional. She was a main factor in getting many pages completed. She was also responsible for most of our ads."

Now & Then

When you think back when you were growing up, can you remember the kids you hung with in your neighborhood?

Well, these six graduating seniors can honestly say, "Yes."

When they think back to their younger days, Spencer Han, Brian Stager, Joel Wesch, Chris Goddard, Marcy Hendershot and Heidi Whiting are just a few of the names they are surely going to remember.

Many memories have been and will be shared between these young people, from Sea Monsters, bloody murder, when they were young, to their graduation day and parties.

Just by looking at their pictures you can tell that all these kids have changed in more ways than one, but one thing that will never change is their friendship.

Many friends come and go but these six seniors can speak differently. Twelve years of friendship says it all.

The Learning Center

What could you get for seven months and $750,000.00 dollars? How about "The Learning Center" — with twenty-four Pentium computer workstations, an audio studio, three large television monitors, a thirty seat presentation/lecture room with a giant screen, a television studio, a radio studio, a resource room for teachers, internet access, and much, much more. That is what you get.

The learning Center is a learning environment designed to give students an opportunity to cruise the information highway and technological world of the future.

The center will also be shared with staff, businesses, alumni, the community, and students from other schools. Many will use the high-tech addition to Marysville High School.

How do you get to use the Learning Center? Well, you have to take a training program, then take a test. After that, one has to fill out a few forms. You may then use the center.

Most students like the relaxed atmosphere and state of the art technological features.

Junior Amy Adams said, "I like how it's not a traditional school atmosphere. It is more business like."

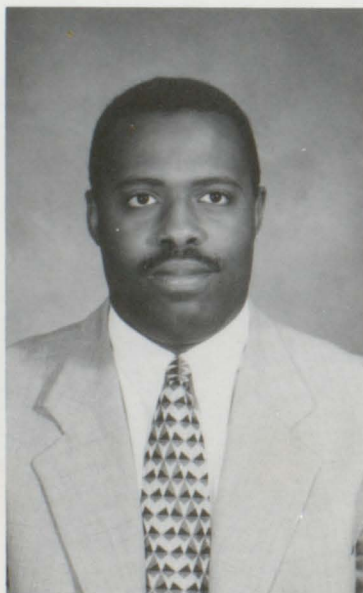

Keep your eye on the center. The future is here.

Mr. Mark Washington

The new and first Director of Technology in the new Learning Center is Western Michigan graduate, Mr. Mark Washington.

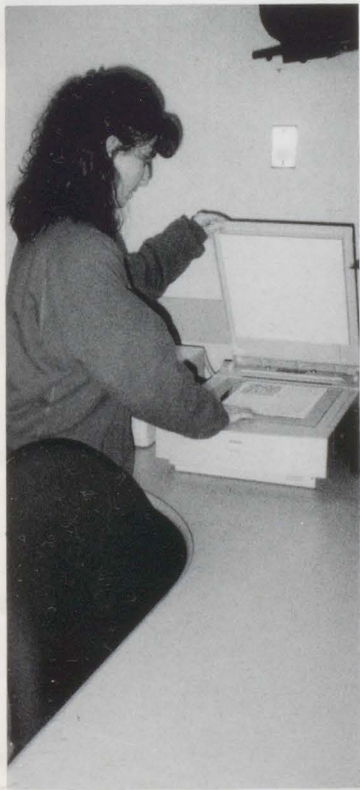

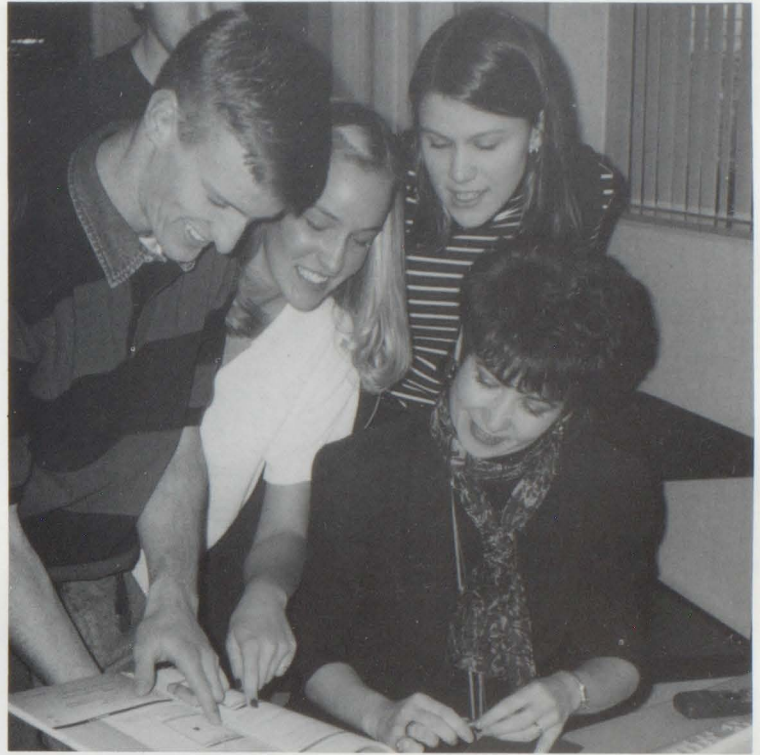

Mr. Washington has expertise in communications, management, finance, and technology.

He loves technology because it is always changing and always challenging.

Color Guard and Spectrum

Together As One

This year's Color Guard and Spectrum were joined together as one unit for the competition season.

They received new uniforms and props.

They were led by captains Kellie Baldwin and Angela Stocker.

Angela said, "Considering this was my first year as captain I feel the demand for hard work was achieved."

Kellie remarked, "The harder you work the luckier you get."

The Guard performs to the song "Ritual Fire Dance" at one of the competitions."

Varsity Cheerleading

Varsity Girls Basketball

The team stands together for the National Anthem before their game began.

This year's Varsity Girl's Basketball team was led by co — captains senior Reada Glitman and junior Amberly Zimmer.

The team began a roller-coaster year according to coach Michael Gkekas. It seemed that the Lady Vikings could not keep their performance level consistent. As the season progressed they improved their offensive and defensive skills.

The young team ended with a 500 season and is looking forward to next year.

Tradition, Attitude, Pride, Strength

This year's varsity team wasn't supposed to be any good. The papers said the team wouldn't win the SCAL, but they did.

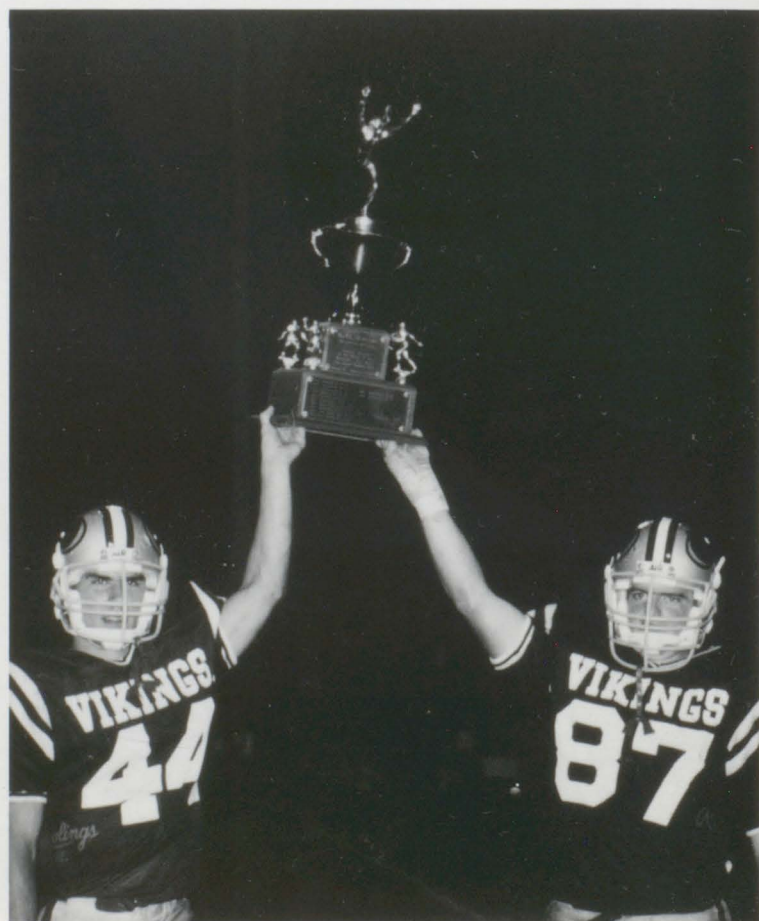

The team started out with a big win against Port Huron High. They then played Lumen Christi. It was a battle between the number one and number two teams in the State. The Titans came away with the win.

Then the Vikings had another tough game against Marine City for the S.C.A.L. championship. Vikings won the game 34-20. They were S.C.A.L. champs. They went 7-2 overall.

Cross Country

The boys' and girls' teams are all smiles after taking 4th and 5th at the New Boston Invitational.

Captain Chuck Knuth runs away with another victory during a key S.C.A.L. meet.

Captain Jaime Partridge runs hard during a key home meet at Marysville Park.

Heidi Whiting and Felix Ruff relax after a long day at the Port Huron Invitational.

Successful Season

The Boys' Cross County team had a successful season. They placed second in the S.C.A.L. Senior captain Chuck Knuth had an excellent season. He went undefeated in S.C.A.L. and placed 10th in the State. Chuck had a strong following by freshman Andy Vyncke who placed 24th at States. Next season looks to be just as successful with five returning runners.

The Girls' Cross Country team also had a successful season. They placed 3rd in the S.C.A.L.

This year's captain was Jaime Partridge. She was a very enthusiastic leader.

It looks to be an exciting season next year. The girls' team has eight returning letter women.

Girls' Varsity Swimming

Daily Improvement

Captains Kim Smith and Laura Sadler led the team to a 6 and 7 season.

This was a big improvement over last year. "I'm very proud of the girls' accomplishments this year, since we have a young team and I feel they have a lot of potential," says Coach Julie Master.

Golf

Senior Chad Stocker practices his putting before a key S.C.A.L. golf meet.

A group of golfers warm up before teeing off on the first hole at Marysville Golf Course.

Varsity Hockey

Sophomore Ryan Loane makes a great save in front of the net during the Port Huron High game.

Junior Nick Augustyn shoots and scores against Royal Oak in one of the year's hockey competitions.

Matt Finnie and Nick Augustyn scramble for a rebound.

Senior and captain Scott Landschoot fires a hard wrist shot towards the net against Royal Oak.

Tracy Brinker and Kim Lipke perform with the Valhallas during a basketball game in the gym.

Valhallas

The 1996 Valhallas perform a routine at the Birchwood Mall as part of a Christmas season event.

The Marysville Valhallas strike a pose in front of the carousel at the Birchwood Mall.

Volleyball — “The Sky’s The Limit”

The year's Varsity Volleyball team had an exceptional year.

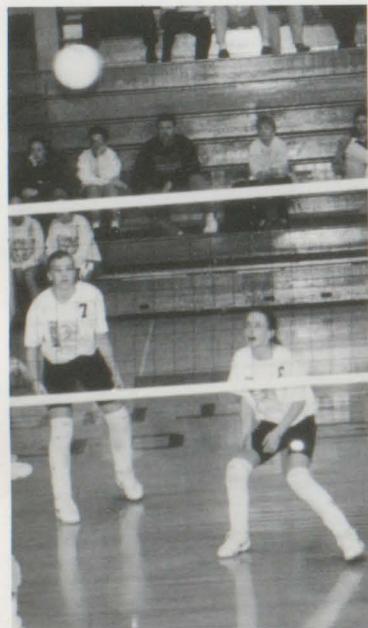

Once again they were the S.C.A.L. champions. This has become a yearly tradition for the team.

Once again the team was one of the finest in the state, holding the number one ranking in Class B all year.

Under the coaching of Mr. John Knuth the team won many tournaments including Birch Run, Vassar, and its own Marysville Invitational.

The team captains were Suzy Pavlov and Jennie Williams.

Varsity Boys' Basketball

The boys' varsity basketball team had a season of ups and downs as they fought their way into the middle of the S.C.A.L. race.

One of the brightest spots of the season was a convincing crushing of rival St. Clair in the Marysville gym.

Senior point guard and team captain Joe Haligowski summed up the season by commenting, "We didn't achieve what we wanted to achieve, but that happens sometimes. We tried!"

The team was the winner of the Marysville Basketball Christmas Tournament.

The Vikings were coached by Mr. Kirk Smith.

The basketball team stands in formation for the playing of the national anthem before a game.

Senior Todd Fowler, one of the best shooters on the varsity team, shoots a jump shot against Imlay City.

Senior point guard and captain Joe Haligowski drives and shoots for two in the high school gym.

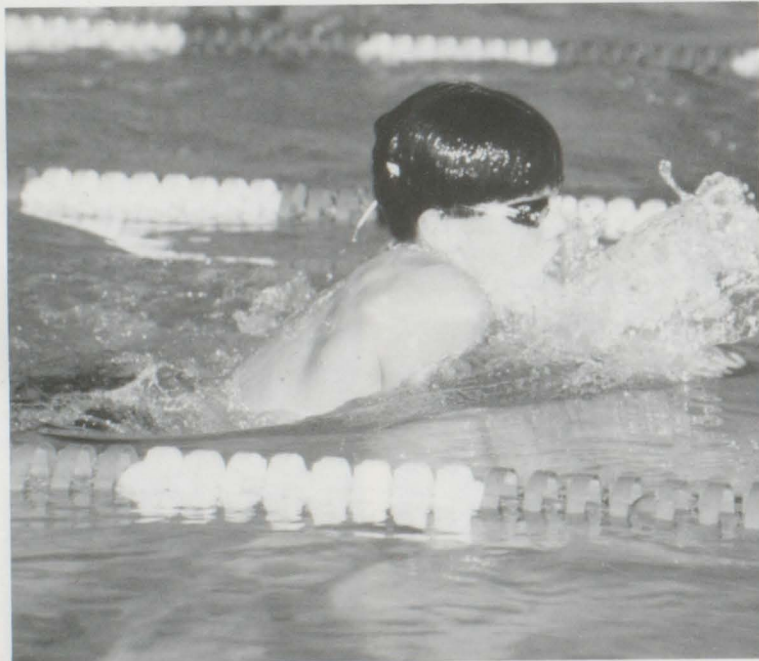

Boys' Varsity Swimming

Senior swimmer Jason Seacat races to the finish line while swimming free-style in a race.

Seniors Jeff Kunnath and Jeff Herman share a few laughs before the start of a swim meet.

Freshman swimmer Danny Wilkerson swims the breast stroke in a swim meet during the 1995-1996 season.

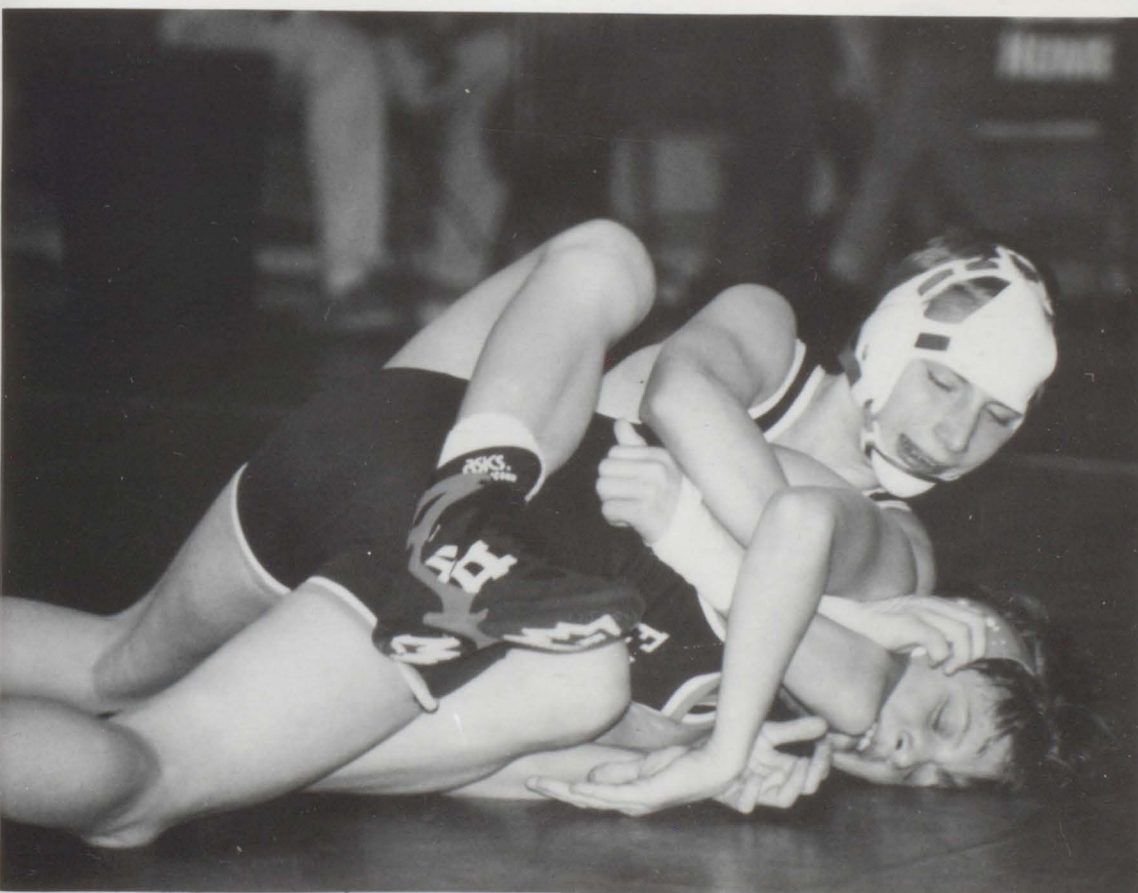

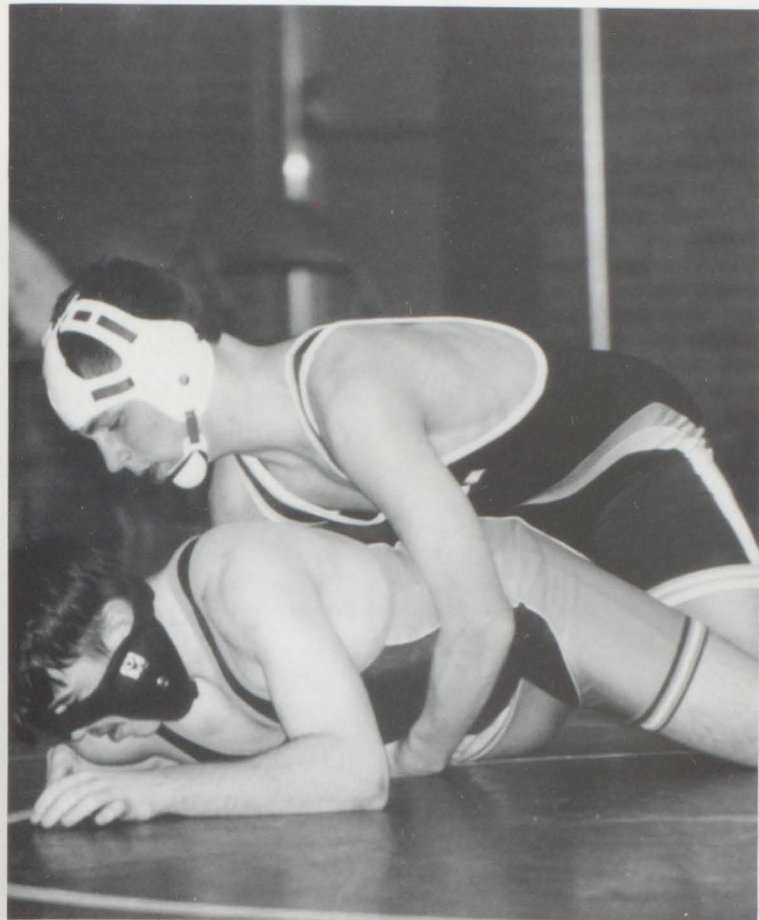

Doug Stayer takes some time to catch his breath after swimming a race during his senior year.

Wrestling

Captain Bill Frikken takes down an opponent for a win at an important tournament meet.

Steve Parker takes control of his Fern-dale opponent at a varsity meet in Marysville.

The 1995-1996 wrestling team had its eyes on the future, and every match was a sign of good things to come.

The team was the biggest in numbers and one of the youngest wrestling teams ever seen.

In spite of youth the team was always in the middle of the pack.

The fifty-five wrestlers this year were learning and getting ready for next year after a year they could be proud of.

The team was coached by Mr. Bill Goetz.

Andy Frikken pins his way to a victory in a key match on his way to an S.C.A.L. victory.

The riders in a race do not stop short when they reach the goal. There is a little finishing canter before coming to a standstill. There is time to hear the kind voice of friends and to say to one's self: "The work is done." But just as one says that, the answer comes: "The race is over, but the work never is done while the power to work remains." The canter that brings you to a standstill need not be only coming to rest. It cannot be, while you still live. For to live is to function. That is all there is in living.

— Oliver Wendell Holmes, Jr.
